Monday a.m. 9:30 – 11:30

January 21 – April 1 (no classes on February 18, Family Day)

Moderators: Herman Sahrman, Russ Knight

Why do we use so much plastic? Could we get along without it? We have come to rely on lightweight, durable, cheaply produced plastics for disposable medical devices, food packaging, water bottles, mobile phones, automobiles, and construction materials. But plastic waste is an environmental hazard, polluting our water, food and air. Let's explore how we can enjoy the benefits of plastic while reducing its risks.

DICTATORS

Monday p.m. 1:30 – 3:30

January 21 – April 1 (no classes on February 18, Family Day)

Moderators: Sandy Morton, Linda Vandusen

Throughout history, dictators have ruled with an iron fist, attempting to annihilate their enemies and oppress their people in a grab for absolute power. From Nazi despot Adolf Hitler to Cambodia's genocidal leader Pol Pot to modern-day Bashar al-Assad and Kim Jong-un, we will examine the life and times of notorious dictators, past and present.

BEST LOVED BOOKS

Tuesday a.m. 9:30 - 11:30

January 22 – March 26

Moderators: Jane Skinner and Shelley Sorgini

Is there a beloved book that you've turned to again and again? Or perhaps a special book has stayed in your thoughts over the years. If so, please join us for Best Loved Books. Participants read a short passage from their chosen book: describe the plot, theme, characters; tell about the author's life and work; and explain why you love this book – without revealing the ending.

THE MUSIC MAKERS

Tuesday p.m. 1:30 - 3:30

January 22 – March 26

Moderators: Jeff Keenor and Lynn Hamilton

The group will discuss great composers and their work – classical, operatic, rock, jazz, rap or any body of musical work. Presenters will be encouraged to make available a sample of their chosen composer's work that the group can hear, and provide information about the composer's life and the success of his/her work, along with information about style and form.

THE OTTOMAN EMPIRE

Wednesday p.m. 1:30 – 3:30

January 23 – March 27

Moderators: Ljuba Gerow, Bob Gerow

The Ottoman Empire was a state that controlled much of southeastern Europe, western Asia and northern Africa between the 14th and early 20th centuries. How was it formed? Who and what drove expansion? What were the short- and long-term impacts on the lands and people it controlled? What has it become and what is its influence in international affairs?

SOCIAL MOVEMENTS

Thursday a.m. 9:30 – 11:30

January 24 – March 28

Moderators: Gary Shawyer, Jim Easton

Social Movements such as Me Too, civil rights and Arab Spring occur when people come together with shared concerns. They intend to bring about lasting effects by encouraging change in their society or by resisting the powers that be. What are some of the social movements that have developed in the past or exist today? Where did they start, and how did they succeed, fail, or change society?

POTPOURRI – ANYTHING GOES

Thursday p.m. 1:30 - 3:30

January 24 – April 4 (no class February 14; Founder's Luncheon)

Do you have some insight that you have always wanted to share with others? Here you will have an attentive and appreciative audience.

THE COMPLEX RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN RELIGION AND VIOLENCE

Friday a.m. 9:30 - 11:30

January 25 – March 29

Moderators: Michael Johnson and Douglas Leighton

The world's religions have been used both to perpetrate and support, and to oppose and repudiate, violence. Has violence in the name of religion ever solved a problem? Why do we keep repeating history?

FAMOUS OR INFAMOUS ... COUPLES WORTH CONSIDERING

Friday p.m. 1:30 – 3:30

January 25 – March 29

Moderators: Diana Lloyd, Susan Collins

In the spirit of fairness for both current and new members and also to reduce the workload of our volunteer registration staff, we are making the following changes to the registration process:

- Registration opens upon distribution of the brochure.
- All registrations received in the office after the brochure is distributed will be placed in the order received, but will not be processed until after the Program Preview.
- At the Program Preview, AFTER the presentations are over, completed registration forms will be reviewed by an Ambassador for completeness before payment will be accepted.
- Registration forms will then be numbered in the order the reviewed form and payment are received by the Treasurer.
- After the Program Preview, the office will interleave those received at the Program Preview with those received prior, thus assuring a level playing field for both current and new members and keeping volunteer work at a minimum.

After the Program Preview, all registration forms with payment can be sent either by mail or dropped off in the SLR locked mailbox located on the 1st floor foyer of Grosvenor Lodge. They can also be handed in at the Open House. (For the date, time and location of the Program Preview and Open House, see the Mark Your Calendars section in the brochure and/or visit www.slrlondon.ca.)
